CODE OF CONDUCT:

Loon Lake Lodge requests that all guests coming to the facility and grounds please read in advance and be familiar with the code of conduct.

Please kindly save a copy of Loon Lake's Code of Conduct and REVIEW before you arrive at the retreat.

Please checkmark to confirm that you are agreeing to the Code of Conduct below.

Please obey the following forest regulations at all times:

- Obey speed limits; 30 km/h maximum on forest road & 10km/h within Loon Lake Camp area
- No smoking in the Forest except in designated areas at Loon Lake Centre
- No fishing on any body of water in the Research Forest
- No Bicycles, power boats, motorcycles, dirt bikes, or ATV's
- No pets allowed in the forest
- No overnight camping in the forest
- No hiking/swimming in the dark
- No littering; all garbage to be disposed of within buildings, wildlife is present and will become a nuisance
- No campfires in the forest except in designated fire pits at Loon Lake Centre; please obey fire hazard signs
- Damage to property will be billed directly to your group.
- If you are parking overnight in the UBC Research Forest (paved) parking lot, you must let either the office staff or caretakers know. These are not Loon Lake parking lots, we are another 7km into the forest on gravel (unpaved) road.

By signing this form, I understand that participation is at my own risk.

We want to keep the Research Forest safe and beautiful.
We appreciate your compliance with our regulations.
